RE: Agar vs. AdvantageCare Physicians, et al.
Civil Docket No: 16-CV-01438-PKC-RER

Honorable Judge Chen:

Pertaining to your order of May 26, 2017, I am actively seeking counsel. I am hopeful I can conclude the hiring process by June 19th, the set deadline date.

Should I need more time, I wanted to alert you well in advance of June 19, 2017, that I may have a conflict that could make it difficult for me to complete the hiring process. You may be aware that I am a professional baseball agent and, similar to tax accountants, we agents have schedules that require condensed hours of time at different periods of the calendar year. One such period of time is approaching and involves the drafting of amateur and collegiate baseball players from their respective high schools and colleges.

The period begins on June 12th, the first day of the Major League Baseball draft, and runs through July 7th, the final day to negotiate and sign contracts for drafted players. While it is premature to know if the attorney hiring process will be completed by June 19th, it is appropriate now to give an ample indication that I may run into difficulties. Meanwhile, I will keep you well informed on my progress in the hiring of counsel.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Marc P. Agar". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Marc" and last name "Agar" being clearly legible.
